

NEVADA STATE JOURNAL

C. C. POWNING, Editor and Proprietor

EASTERN NEVADA.

A Chicago gentleman writes the Eureka Sentinel for information relative to Eastern Nevada, to which that paper replies as follows:

As every one here knows, Nevada has been under a cloud of depression, but the signs are most favorable in this section at least, for an early and healthful revival of our mining, agricultural and business interests. Right here in Eureka District we have a mineral belt of uncommon magnitude, and our mines have yielded eighty-five million dollars in silver and gold and nothing less than 242,000 tons of marked lead. Two of our mines alone have paid, in round figures, ten million dollars in dividends. Our mountains and valleys the world cannot excel for stock ranges and sheep raising, and where water can be had sufficient for irrigation purposes, we can raise fine cereals, potatoes, or for that matter, any kind of vegetables, and fruit that will excel similar productions in point of size, equality and flavor raised in any part of America. We in Eureka county are not alone blessed with great natural wealth-giving resources, but all the counties bordering upon us are filled to overflowing with them. What we need to develop them is a much larger population, more capital and interstate railroads; but the last named would undoubtedly soon bring us all that we would require of the other two. It is simply a question of time as to when we will have each and all of our requirements satisfied, and to help us along we have had a most extraordinary amount of snow during the winter, which will replenish our springs and streams, and give us a far larger amount of water during the Spring and Summer than we ever had before. It will also leave so much moisture in the ground that grass will be plentiful in the hills and valleys for ten times more stock than we will have to feed, and the soil will have a splendid start for succeeding seasons.

Salaries of Judges.

The House Judiciary Committee on Wednesday reported favorably a substitute for the Senate bill 174, fixing the salaries of United States Judges at $5,000. The substitute provides that the Judges shall receive the following salaries: Southern District of New York, $5,000; District of Massachusetts, Northern and Eastern, District of New York, District of New Jersey, Eastern District of Pennsylvania, Northern District of Illinois, Eastern District of Missouri, Northern District of California, and Eastern District of Louisiana, $5,000; Southern District of Ohio, District of Maryland, Western District of Pennsylvania, and Southern District of California, $4,500; the salaries of all other District Judges $4,000. The report says that there is a great demand for an increase of salaries, as the present sums preclude the employment of eminent lawyers, greatly interferes with securing good men, and tempts our best jurists to resign their places. At present the salaries are: Judge Hoffman, of San Francisco, $5,000; Judge Billings, of New Orleans, $4,500; Judge Blodgett, of Chicago, Judge Lewis, of Baltimore, Judge Nelson, of Boston, Judge Nixon, of Trenton, Judge Brown, of New York, Judge Benedict, of Brooklyn, Judge Cox, of Utica, Judge Sage, of Cincinnati, Judge Butler, of Philadelphia, Judge Archison, of Pittsburg, and Judge Rose, of Los Angeles, $4,000. All remaining Judges receive $3,500 each.

C. P. Huntington Coming.

It is expected that C. P. Huntington will arrive on the coast about the 1st of next month. One of the objects of his trip is to inspect some lines of road in the vicinity of Portland, Or., negotiations for the purchase of which he is now carrying on with a Scotch syndicate. Should these lines be acquired, it will give the Southern Pacific Company as strong a hold in the Willamette Valley as it now has in the Sacramento and San Joaquin Valleys.

There is a great deal of talk in army circles now about the prospect of a revival of the grade of Lieutenant General of the Army. It is extremely probable that a bill will be introduced within the next few days to confer that honor upon General Schofield. In that event there would be a very general promotion all along the line, General Miles stepping certainly into a higher place. The people who are working most actively to bring this about, however, are not the friends of General Miles, but those of General Grierson, the senior Colonel in the service, at present commanding the Department of Arizona. Grierson was one of the ablest cavalry leaders during the late war. He is a man of commanding ability, and has hosts of warm friends in political and social life in Washington. President Harrison, too, is understood to look with favor upon the plan.

The San Francisco Mint is now running under full pressure and it is estimated that during the present month 600,000 silver dollars will be coined, or about the same amount as was turned out during February. The coining of gold will not be neglected, and this month about $2,000,000 worth of the precious metal will be turned into American money.

The lottery bill, it is believed, will yet pass the North Dakota Legislature, and then over the Governor's almost certain veto by a two-thirds vote.

The Bank of England has reduced the rate of discount from 4 1/4 to 4 per cent.

NEW ORLEANS FLOODED.

RENO'S PUBLIC BUILDING BILL FOR $75,000 PASSES THE SENATE.

A Smuggler Captured—Peruvian Revolution—That Lynching Scrape.

New Orleans Threatened.

Special to the Journal.

NEW ORLEANS, March 13.—At 1 p. m. the river was three inches above the high-water mark of 1874 and was still rising. At Poydras street the water commenced running over the levee, and all the low places in the vicinity were soon flooded. On the lower side of Canal street, near Harbor Station, the water covers the levee up to the Louisville & Nashville depot. At Bienville street, much of the levee is under water. The streets about the Sugar Exchange are flooded and the Exchange is reached by temporary plank walks. Water is flowing down the gutters of Bienville and other streets below the canal. It is not expected, however, that much damage will result, as the levee is strong and will not give way.

The river continues rising steadily. At 3:30 p. m. it was six inches above the highest mark of former years. A large part of the city below Canal street is entirely submerged. The water at the Custom House is over the sidewalks and is coming up rapidly. On the Decatur street side the water fills the street and is beginning to encroach on the sidewalk. Water is flowing through Canal street, and the indications are that the entire business portion of the city will be covered with water before morning.

NEW ORLEANS, March 13.—The levee at this point has broken and a portion of the city upon the river front is entirely submerged. The water is being pumped out at the back part of the city into Lake Pontchartrain. It is feared the water may exceed the capacity of the pumps and flood the whole back part of the town. A large fire has been raging at Soule's Brewery. A bonded warehouse on one side of the brewery and one of the largest oil mills of the south on the other side, were both on fire.

Peruvian Troubles.

Special to the Journal.

PANAMA, March 13.—A correspondent writing from Lima says the agitation in the provinces, caused by antagonism between two candidates of the Constitutional party for the Presidential nomination, has assumed grave proportions. At Puno there was a collision resulting in the loss of quite a number of lives and the pillage of many houses. There was also a collision at Huanta, many on both sides being killed, among them the chiefs of both parties—Senor Azona, the Deputy of Congress and head of the revolution, and Dr. Urbina, chief of the Rosas party. Dr. Urbina, after five members of his family were killed, took refuge with others in a church where many women, children and old people had already gathered. The priests exhorted the Indians to desist from the butchery, but the Indians were drunk and threatened to burn the church down. Dr. Urbina, knowing he was the cause of their action, and wishing to save the lives of the other people, determined to sacrifice himself, and, after receiving the benediction of the priest, went out to the guerrillas and was murdered. Not satisfied with this they continued their butchery for hours and over one hundred lives were sacrificed.

Opium Smuggler Captured.

Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—Customs officer Crittenden made a seizure of $2,500 worth of opium early this morning, and captured a man giving the name of Wm. Bourne, who was afterwards held on a charge of smuggling. The officer saw Bourne passing near the Arctic Oil Works, in a small boat which contained some bags. He ordered him to stop, but the man rowed away, and Crittenden fired six shots at him. A launch was procured, and the man soon overtaken when the bags were found to contain opium, and the seizure made. Bourne said he got the drug from the schooner and supposed it was coal.

An Indignant People.

Special to the Journal.

PRESIDENT, March 13.—The people here are very indignant over the discharge of Dan Burke, the man who was sent to warn the settlers along the Hassayampa river of danger, prior to the breaking of the Walnut Grove dam, and instead of doing so became intoxicated. It is thought some sixty persons lost their lives on this account. He was arrested by Sheriff O'Neill on a charge of manslaughter, but has now been released on the grounds that there is no provision in the laws of Arizona under which he can be punished.

That Lynching Scrape.

Special to the Journal.

MINNEAPOLIS, March 13.—The trial of the first three persons charged with the Olson lynching, at Whitehall, was concluded to day as far as the testimony was concerned. The wife and son of the murdered man, and Ole Stetto, a well-to-do farmer, were on trial for what, according to the Judge's charges, is murder in the first degree. Thirty other men will plead guilty to a charge of rioting.

A WARNING.

Jules Simon Utters a Warning to all European Powers.

PARIS, Nov. 11.—Jules Simon, who is to represent France in the Berlin Labor Convention, does not believe that Emperor William will win the Socialists from their discontent. The Emperor will find, he says, the Socialists so constituted that the more you concede the more they demand. He will find that having taken the first step on the road to concession it will be impossible for him to draw back, and he will have to take other steps, make other concessions, his enemies growing meantime the stronger and more exacting, while he finds himself less capable to check the avalanche which he himself, in part, set in motion.

"Look forward, therefore," Mr. Simon says, "with grave apprehension to the effect upon Europe of this present labor agitation. I regard the Emperor's rescript as marking an important epoch in the progress of the Socialistic movement, and already I can hear the matterings of what must be the struggle of the future, the struggle between the many and few, between the toiling millions, who have thus far suffered silently, and those who have made them suffer, between capital and labor, between luxury and starvation, between misery and wealth."

"No human being can avert the struggle, but human power must do much to hasten its approach. I shall not see the day, and you may not see it, but the day is coming when the autocratic powers of Europe will be forced to unite against the united Socialistic army, and to stand or fall together."

"Your ancestors in the New World were able to build up out of fragmentary governments what is to-day the United States of America. Why may not our descendants in some way succeed in establishing the United States of Europe?"

"Look back a few centuries and you will see where France now stands a number of independent provinces. In the course of time these provinces united for their common interest and were better and stronger for the union. With the progress of civilization came the Europe of to-day, as was France of that older time. The task of uniting the existing continental powers is hardly greater than was the task of uniting Normandy, Brittany and other Gallic provinces."

The United States of Europe idea is received with an incredulous smile by the thoughtless minds, but I think that history shows that many strange friendships have brought about the common peril—the common peril that is threatening Europe now and is growing greater with every decade. It is the common peril of Socialism. Let all Europe beware."

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—A debate took place on the Southern question in which Eastis, Hoar, Sherman and Butler took part. Sherman said there was a feeling in the North that not only have the negroes of the South been deprived of votes but that the people of the South now enjoy a larger political power than the same number of people in the North. He continued: "Let the South obey the Constitutional Amendment; let it give the negro a vote and permit him to vote as he will. I would not care if the whole negro population would vote the Democratic ticket, but this feeling of injustice does prevail in the North that while you are depriving the colored people of votes, you are exercising undue power in the Government, and now I say that beyond and above this educational bill or any other pending measure it is the Act of Congress that will secure to every man as entitled to vote his right to cast his vote and have it counted. Whenever Congress rises to the dignity of passing such a law that will be uniform throughout the United States, affecting Massachusetts and Ohio as well as South Carolina, every man will feel that it is a just and fair law and there will be no further ground for complaint."

The New Territory.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The Oklahoma bill contains provisions fixing the boundaries of the new territory to include the Cherokee outlet, with a proviso that no lands which the Indians occupy, under treaty or law, shall be included without their consent, except for judicial purposes. They extend over the new territory the Constitution and laws of the United States and the code of Nebraska, without interference with the local Indian Governments acting under their treaty rights. Seven counties are established. The county seats will be Guthrie, Oklahoma City, Norman, Lisbon or Kingfisher, Beaver, Stillwater and one more to be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior. The Cherokee outlet is declared public land and open to settlement under the Homestead laws and bona fide settlers and occupants are given preferred rights. The judicial system of the Indian Territory is divided into three districts, and Courts will be held at Muskogee, Vinita, Okotok, Ardmore and Purcell.

In Favor of It.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—David Harpster, President of the Ohio Wool Growers' Association, and Judge Lawrence, a member of the same Association, have prepared for publication a statement explanatory of the wool schedule in the tariff bill now under consideration by the House Committee on Ways and Means in which they say that the provisions for carpet wools are the best ever incorporated in the tariff law, and these are wools that just now are injuring the wool industry of the United States. They recommended the passage of the McKinley bill.

BREVITIES.

Mrs. Bender is visiting her son, C. T. Bender.

D. A. Bender came over from Carson yesterday.

The west bound train was four hours late last night.

An assessment of 25c per share on the Utah mine was levied Wednesday.

Seeds all gone. Don't call at the Journal office until it gets another sack.

Dr. Greenlaw is kept busy all the time. He has plenty of work and does it well.

The Reno Electric Light and Power Co. levied an assessment of 15 cents per share yesterday.

The Orr Extension Ditch Co. has levied an assessment of $10 per share. See notice elsewhere.

There is not a vacant dwelling in Winnemucca, though there are several families anxious to rent such houses.

Mrs. C. S. Varian has arrived at Winnemucca from Salt Lake on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Guthrie.

Allen C. Bragg, C. A. Jones, and W. O. H. Martin and wife and two youngest children, departed for the Bay last night.

Reno will soon have a Public Building, so what difference does it make where the Postoffice is located for the time being.

Frank Stoddard, brother of C. H. Stoddard, has again returned to Reno looking hale and hearty. This time he is from Texas.

Sheiff Sweney, of Eureka, arrived yesterday morning with the two Curmows, who go to State Prison—one for five and the other for eleven years—for an assault to kill.

Dr. Mallen successfully removed Johnny Fitzgerald's tape-worm day before yesterday, head and all, and now John has no extra board bills to pay, and every show for a speedy recovery to health.

Mrs. D. Allen and son left yesterday morning via the Southern Pacific route for Baltimore, where they go on a visit to relatives and where they expect to remain a year.

Sailed proposals, in triplicate, will be received in San Francisco until 12 M., on Friday, April 11, 1890, and then opened, for transportation of military supplies during fiscal year ending June 30, 1891, as follows: Route No. 1—Reno, Nevada, to Fort Bidwell, Cal., or Leigan, Cal., to Fort Bidwell, Cal., wagon transportation. Government reserves the right to reject any and all proposals. All information on application to Alex. J. Perry, Assistant Quartermaster General, U. S. A.

The Holmes.

The San Francisco Post says the annual meeting of the Holmes Mining Company was held Thursday morning at the office in Nevada block, San Francisco. There were 68,000 shares represented out of the capital stock, and the following Directors were elected to serve for the ensuing year: W. J. Sutherland, Ramon E. Wilson, J. E. Condit, A. Judson and Israel W. Knox.

The Secretary's report showed an indebtedness of $6,000. At a subsequent meeting of the Directors William J. Sutherland was elected President, Raymon E. Wilson Vice President, C. E. Elliott Secretary and D. H. Jackson Superintendent. Work will be started up at once on the property, and an assessment of 25 cents per share has been levied to clear up all outstanding indebtedness.

The New Nevada Bank.

The San Francisco Alta says: I. W. Hellman, the prospective President of the new Nevada Bank, is said to be busy allotting the amounts of stock which those who subscribed before the books were closed are entitled to obtain. It is stated that fully $16,000,000 worth of stock has been asked for by people on this Coast and in the East. The capital stock of the bank is to be $3,000,000. Mr. Hellman was to have had $1,000,000, but he has reduced the amount. John W. Mackay and James L. Flood were to have had $250,000 each, but they will not be given over $200,000 each. Others among the original applicants will be cut down in proportion. It is expected that the new bank will begin business on April 1st.

Stock on Jungo Desert.

The Silver State says Dan LeBarron, just in from the Jackson Creek country, says he saw lots of dead cattle and only a few live ones on Jungo desert. There is a band of horses on the desert that seem to have stood the Winter well, but he did not see a live last Spring's colt or calf on the way in. Every animal on the range under a year old is dead.

First National Statement.

The report of the condition of the First National Bank, at the close of business February 28th, appears in the advertising columns, showing the assets and liabilities to balance at $589,339 79. The various items enumerated are the best evidence of the continued prosperity of the institution.

Passed the Senate.

The Reno and Virginia City Public Building Bills, appropriating $75,000 for each city, passed the Senate yesterday, and will now have to run the gamut of the House. The Journal trusts and believes they will both go through all right.

Mr. O'Neill, as "Edmund Dantes" and the "Count of Monte Cristo" gives a fine piece of acting. He is earnest, manly, and infuses his performance of the parts with a power that demands recognition from the audience. —Chicago Tribune.

The Sheep Interest.

A Chicago special of March 7th says: C. S. Reynolds, of Nebraska, one of the largest sheep buyers in the West, said: "This Winter has been an unfortunate one to wool growers on the Pacific slope, as the heavy storms have killed many sheep. I have found severe losses in Oregon, Nevada, Utah and Northern California. As the wool growing industry is too extensive to be confined to any one district the sheep owners who pulled their flocks through will get no increase over last year's prices. Some Pacific slope sheep raisers will be driven out of the business by their heavy losses this Winter. California is still the star wool State. While there will be a loss of 50 per cent in Northern California the increase of 25 per cent in the southern part of the State will bring the clip of the entire State up to, if not above, the average."

"In Utah, Oregon and Nevada the loss is universal. Montana will show a fair increase. In eastern Oregon and Nevada the loss of sheep is 65 per cent. One reason for the heavy loss in Nevada is that no hay was raised during the last two years. When this year's storms began all communication from the outside was shut off, and no hay was obtainable. The meagre supply of hay was given to the cattle, and the sheep had to rustle or starve. Nearly every year I buy several hundred sheep at or near Austin, Nevada. This year there is not enough wool there to line an overcoat. All in all, it will be a pretty hard year for sheep growers."

New Mexico Stock.

In response to some 300 letters of inquiry the New Mexico Stockgrower and Farmer, published at Santa Fe, has gathered data showing the general condition of cattle in the Territory and the number of sheep to go to market this Spring, provided prices are good. The report shows the number of steers from yearlings up to be 397,250, of which 200,000 are yearlings, 180,700 two-year-olds and 58,500 three years old or over. The ranges taken on an average are fair, only one county being designated as poor. Water is plentiful in most of the counties, and cattle generally are in good condition. Take the Territory as a whole the losses have been extremely light, and prices for three-year-olds are refused that have not been obtainable for three years past.

They Cannot Land.

Acting upon the advice of the Attorney General, Secretary Windom has decided that Chinese merchants coming to this country for the first time and provided with a certificate prescribed by Section 6 of the Act of July 5, 1891, cannot be permitted to land in the United States, notwithstanding the fact that they are not laborers.

An Unusual Season.

Special to the Journal. ALAMOGA, Colo., March 13.—The Rio Grande railroad has 250 shovellers at work opening the blockade across the San Juan range at Cumbres, on the east side of the divide. The snow is reported to be 60 feet above the tops of the telegraph poles and for miles on each side is from 25 to 40 feet deep. It is the deepest ever known in this locality. The cold is very severe, this morning being 23 degrees below zero.

The Raging Sacramento.

Special to the Journal. RIO VISTA, Cal., March 13.—The river rose about two inches last night, but is now falling slowly. The water ran over the levees on Andrus island in several new places to-day, but was immediately checked. The break at the levee on Bamer island is now about 75 yards wide and a dredger is expected some time to-night to repair the break before the island is flooded.

He Would Not Answer.

Special to the Journal. WASHINGTON, March 13.—At a meeting of the Dolph investigating committee to-day George H. Harris, of the Washington Star, declined to answer when asked how he obtained a report of the proceedings of the secret sessions of the Senate.

Reno's Bill.

Special to the Journal. SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—A Washington special says the Senate passed a bill to-day providing for the erection of a public building at Reno, Nevada, to cost $75,000.

The S. F. Post says: H. M. Yerrington, the prominent Comstock mining man, is in town. He speaks very favorably of the mining prospects for the coming year, and also for all business interests in Nevada. There will be a supply of water on hand sufficient for all purposes the year around, and if silver legislation is favorable, which seems probable at present, miners will again be in good demand.

James O'Neill's portrayal of the Count is a finished piece of work. The character is one that calls for a display of true dramatic ability and force, something which Mr. O'Neill possesses in a high degree, and his performance is satisfaction in every way. The Times, Philadelphia.

One of the strongest stage pictures ever presented is undoubtedly the "Edmund Dantes" (Mr. James O'Neill) and the "Abbe Faria." —Brooklyn Times.

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's by holding me their would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other."

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." Mrs. M. L. A. 250 Beautiful Lots For Sale!

A RARE CHANCE FOR AN INVESTMENT AND A HOME

THE MOST LOVELY PORTION OF RENO.

Facing the Truckee—The Aristocratic Avenue—Riverside Driveway—Splendid Sewerage—Healthy Location and Safe From Fire.

The proprietor is now ready to receive proposals for lots in Powning's Addition. The map gives a good idea of the tract, which is situated between the Central Pacific Railroad and the Truckee River, and commences on the west at a point three blocks distant from Virginia Street, making it the most central and convenient of any portion of the rapidly growing town of Reno. Unlike any other part of the town this Addition faces the beautiful Truckee River and Riverside Avenue is certain to become the fashionable driveway of the country. The streets are 80 feet wide, while Riverside and Keystone Avenues are intended to be 100 feet in width. All alleys are 20 feet wide. The soil is a rich gravelly loam, and susceptible of the highest state of cultivation. Being situated as it is it is more safe from fire than any other section. The regular lots are 50x140 feet. The sewerage is perfect.

Before Buying Elsewhere Parties will do Well to Look at These Lots.

RENO

Reno's geographical position is excellent. It is on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, only 154 miles from Sacramento, and 244 miles from San Francisco. It is the terminus of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad running south, and of the Nevada and California Railroad running north. It has two Flouring Mills, Planing Mills, three Nurseries, a Soap Factory, Reduction Works, and other industries. A great Woolen Mill and a Sash, Door, Blind and Box Factory, are about to be established.

Reno has the Bank of Nevada with $300,000 capital, and the First National Bank with $200,000 capital. It has two fine papers in the DAILY and WEEKLY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL and the Daily and Weekly Gazette.

Reno is the natural home of the Alfalfa, and therefore the great cattle headquarters of the State. Here are fed the prime beef for the California market. Reno potatoes are the best in the world, and she also excels in Strawberries and the small fruits. Reno Wheat took the first prize at the great New Orleans Exposition.

The State Fair is always held at Reno.

Reno is the County Seat of Washoe County, the wealthiest county in Nevada.

RENO

Has no equal in Nevada or California for salubrity of climate, wealth of soil, diversity of products and stability. Situated in the very heart of the celebrated Truckee Meadows the future of Reno is assured. Reno is the City of Homes. There is not a house to rent in Reno. New buildings are occupied as fast as erected. Reno has advantages which no other town can equal. The climate is mild and genial in Winter, and even and healthful in Summer. There are no excessively heated or severely cold terms, and while the days may be warm in Summer the nights are deliciously cool; in Winter sleigh-riding is the exception and not the rule.

Facilities for irrigating surpass any in the State and there is no failure of crops. Reno has Churches of all denominations, Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls, Mt. St. Mary's Academy, the State University, and splendid Public Schools.

The Reno Water Co. furnishes ample pure, cold water for all purposes. The Reno Electric Light Co.'s electric light system, already well established, is being augmented. The Reno Gas Co. supplies gas for all purposes. The streets of Reno are lighted by electricity.
